Dear parish family,

5 Sunday of Lent Year A

This Sunday we hear amazing story about raising Lazarus from the dead. It was not just for the early Christians a miracle story but also a pointer to the resurrection of Jesus and also for themselves. The early Christians suffered rejection and persecution so the story of the raising of Lazarus was more for them a reminder and a challenge to never give up hope even in the hopeless situations in which they found themselves as individuals, as a church or as a nation – like what's going on in the world today. It is never too late for God to revive and revitalize a person, a church or a nation.

But to make the miracle happen, Jesus issues three commands and all of them are obeyed to the letter. First, "Jesus said, 'Roll away the stone.' ... So they rolled away the stone". Jesus could have commanded the stone to roll away all by itself, without bothering the people, but why he chose not to? The second command Jesus gives is directed to the dead man: "Lazarus, come out!" and the dead man came out". The third command is addressed to the people, "Unbind him, and let him go." Jesus needs the help of others, of the community, to do that for him. The story demonstrates to us that divine power seems always to be activated by human cooperation and stifled by non-cooperation.

Many individuals and communities today are already in the tomb of spiritual decay, in the bondage of sinful habits and attitudes. Nothing short of a miracle can bring us back to life in Christ. Jesus is ready for the miracle. He himself said, "I came that you may have life, and have it abundantly" (John 10:10). However, he needs always our cooperation, to follow his commands. Are we ready to roll away the stone that stands between us and the light of Christ's face? Are we ready to take the first step to come out of the place of death? Are we ready to unbind and forgive one another and set them free?

There are the various ways we can cooperate with God in the miracle of bringing us back to life and reviving us as individuals, as a church, as a community, as a nation and as a human race. Each of us just has to think of it and what it is that fit into our personal situation.

In these final days of Lent we still have time to judge what it is that keeps us from finding the new life offered by Christ. Only Jesus can give us this new life. The Lord reminds us in today's Gospel, "... if you believe, you will see the glory of God." Hope is there for us, but we must seize it.

Blessing to all and have a good week.

Fr. Tony

Querida familia de la parroquia,

5to. Domingo de Cuaresma

Este domingo escuchamos una historia increíble sobre cómo resucitar a Lázaro de entre los muertos. No fue sólo para los primeros cristianos una historia milagrosa, sino también un indicador de la resurrección de Jesús y también para ellos mismos. Los primeros cristianos sufrieron el rechazo y la persecución, por lo que la historia de la resurrección de Lázaro fue más para ellos un recordatorio y un reto de no perder la esperanza incluso en las desesperadas situaciones en que se encontraron como individuos, como iglesia o como nación - Como lo que está sucediendo en el mundo de hoy. Nunca es demasiado tarde para que Dios reviva y revitalice a una persona, una iglesia o una nación.

Pero para hacer que el milagro suceda, Jesús emite tres mandamientos y todos ellos son obedecidos a la letra. Primero, "Jesús dijo: 'Tirad la piedra'... Así que rodaron la piedra". Jesús podría haber mandado que la piedra se enrollara por sí misma, sin molestar a la gente, pero ¿por qué escogió no hacerlo? La segunda orden que Jesús da es dirigido al muerto: "¡Lázaro, sal fuera!" Y salió el muerto". La tercera orden está dirigida al pueblo: "Desátenlo y déjenlo ir". Jesús necesita la ayuda de otros, de la comunidad, para hacer eso por él. La historia nos demuestra que el poder divino parece siempre ser activado por la cooperación humana y sofocado por la falta de cooperación.

Muchas personas y comunidades de hoy ya están en la tumba de la decadencia espiritual, en la esclavitud de hábitos y actitudes pecaminosas. Nada menos que un milagro puede devolvernos a la vida en Cristo. Jesús está listo para el milagro. El mismo dijo: "Yo he venido para que tengáis vida y la tengáis en abundancia" (Juan 10:10). Sin embargo, él necesita siempre nuestra cooperación, para seguir sus órdenes. ¿Estamos listos para tirar la piedra que está entre nosotros y la luz de la cara de Cristo? ¿Estamos listos para dar el primer paso para salir del lugar de la muerte? ¿Estamos listos para desatarnos y perdonarnos unos a otros y liberarnos?

Hay varias maneras en que podemos cooperar con Dios en el milagro de resucitarnos como individuos, como iglesia, como comunidad, como nación y como raza humana. Cada uno de nosotros sólo tiene que pensar en ello y lo que es adecuado en nuestra situación personal.

En estos últimos días de Cuaresma todavía tenemos tiempo de considerar qué es lo que nos impide encontrar la nueva vida ofrecida por Cristo. Sólo Jesús puede darnos esta nueva vida. El Señor nos recuerda en el Evangelio de hoy: "... si crees, verás la gloria de Dios". La esperanza está ahí para nosotros, pero debemos aprovecharla.

¡Bendiciones a todos y que tengan una buena semana!

Fr. Tony

Bible Study This Week
Sun. 5:15pm & Wed. 9:15am

Upcoming Study ~ Called to Freedom

The Exodus can be viewed as the defining moment in Israel's history, for it was then that God called Israel out of slavery in Egypt and to a life of freedom as His people.

Exodus: Called to Freedom looks through the lens of Christ and the Church to show that, more than just seeking to free His people from the domination of Pharaoh, God desired to free His people from the far more sinister tyranny of sin, so they could live the authentic freedom that belongs to children of God. Because of this, the Exodus story is not just Israel's story, it is our story as well; it tells us who God is and what He calls us to be.

Exodus: Called to Freedom will begin Sunday, April 23 at 5:15 pm in The Rosary Hall conference room and on Wednesday, April 26 in the conference room next to the church office. This Bible study will run 10 weeks. Cost for materials is $25 and scholarships are available. Email Tracy@stmarysrcia@yahoo.com.
