Exodus Bible Study "Called to Freedom"

The Exodus can be viewed as the defining moment in Israel's history, for it was then that God called Israel out of slavery in Egypt and to a life of freedom as His people. Exodus: Called to Freedom looks through the lens of Christ and the Church to show that, more than just seeking to free His people from the domination of Pharaoh, God desired to free His people from the far more sinister tyranny of sin, so they could live the authentic freedom that belongs to children of God. Because of this, the Exodus story is not just Israel's story, it is our story as well; it tells us who God is and what He calls us to be.

Exodus: Ongoing Bible study that will run 10 weeks. Cost for materials are $25 and scholarships are available. Email Tracy@stmarysrcia@yahoo.com.

Dear parish family,

ASCENSION OF THE LORD

The Feast of the Ascension like the Resurrection Sunday is not simply about commemorating a past glorious event. But it's about celebrating an event which literally unlocks the meaning of life, and reveals to us the plan of God for all creation. This is something to which we need to pay attention and consider what it does mean for our lives.

The readings on this feast universally reinforce not only Jesus' physical ascension, but also the design the Lord set forth for His Church and for His work to continue. The Lord has left the disciples physically not to abandon them but to give them the power to continue the work of redemption. The disciples were now onwards to be the mouth, the hands, and the feet of the Lord to proclaim the good news of salvation up to the ends of the world until the end of time.

Jesus' words in this Sunday's gospel, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you, and behold, I am with you always until the end of the age." Thus we can also call this feast day, "the Great Commission."

We are the disciples of the Lord here and now. The task of bringing the Good News is not only given to the ordained ministry like the bishops, priests and deacons, although this is given to them in a special manner, but by virtue of our baptism having ourselves called to be Christians we become sharers of the mission of the Lord to bring the good news to all in whatever little way we can.

We cannot say we are his disciples if we are passive and not active in our faith. And so therefore, may this feast day remind us to take the Lord at his word and that we live what we believe. And may the Lord empower us to go out to proclaim in our lives the good news, and that the power of our faith in the Lord may be made manifest working in us and through us.

When we were baptized, we were at that moment incorporated in Jesus Christ Himself, made members of His Body, the Church. St. Augustine wrote, "Where the Head is, there is the Body; where I am, there is my Church. We, too, are one; the Church is in me and I in Her, and we two are your Beloved." But are we part of the Church in the way Jesus wanted us to be? Is the Church part of us? It should be. We are called, and we must work each day to respond to that calling.

Blessings to all and have a good week. Fr. Tony

Querida familia parroquial,

ASCENSIÓN DEL SEÑOR

La Fiesta de la Ascensión como el Domingo de la Resurrección no es simplemente conmemorar un evento glorioso pasado. Se trata de celebrar un acontecimiento que literalmente abre el sentido de la vida, y nos revela el plan de Dios para toda la creación. Esto es algo a lo que debemos prestar atención y considerar lo que significa para nuestras vidas.

Las lecturas de esta fiesta refuerzan universalmente no sólo la ascensión física de Jesús, sino también el diseño que el Señor estableció para Su Iglesia y para que Su obra continúe. El Señor ha dejado físicamente a los discípulos sin abandonarlos, sino para dándoles el poder de continuar la obra de redención. Los discípulos eran ahora la boca, las manos y los pies del Señor para anunciar las buenas nuevas de la salvación hasta los confines del mundo hasta el fin de los tiempos.

Las palabras de Jesús en el evangelio de este domingo: "Id pues, y haced discípulos de todas las naciones, bautizándolos en el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo, enseñándoles a guardar todo lo que Yo os he mandado, He aquí, yo estoy con vosotros todos los días hasta el fin del mundo". Así también podemos llamar a este día de fiesta: "La Gran Comisión".

Somos los discípulos del Señor aquí y ahora. La tarea de llevar la Buena Nueva no sólo se da al ministerio ordenado como son los obispos, sacerdotes y diáconos, aunque a ellos se les da de una manera especial, pero en virtud de nuestro bautismo habiéndonos llamado a ser cristianos nos hacemos partícipes de la misión del Señor de llevar la buena nueva nos corresponde a todos en la manera que podamos.

No podemos decir que somos sus discípulos si somos pasivos y no actuamos en nuestra fe. Y así, pues, que este día de la fiesta nos recuerde a comprometernos con el Señor en su palabra y que vivamos lo que creemos. Y que el Señor nos autorice a salir a proclamar en nuestras vidas las buenas nuevas, y que el poder de nuestra fe en el Señor se manifieste trabajando en nosotros ya través de nosotros.

Cuando fuimos bautizados, éramos en ese momento incorporados en Jesucristo mismo, siendo miembros de Su Cuerpo: La Iglesia. San Agustín escribió: "Donde está la Cabeza, está el Cuerpo; Donde yo estoy, allí está mi Iglesia. Nosotros también somos uno; La Iglesia está en mí y yo en Ella, y nosotros dos somos su Amado". Pero, ¿somos parte de la Iglesia de la manera en que Jesús quería que fuéramos? ¿Es la Iglesia parte de nosotros? Debería ser. Somos llamados, y debemos trabajar cada día para responder a ese llamado.

Bendiciones a todos y que tengan una buena semana. Fr. Tony
