Revelation: The King Yet to Come

An intriguing study that shows how the Kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the Kingdom of heaven. Here you will discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean. You will see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the "end time." It is a Revelation of God as our Divine Bridegroom and the Church as his spotless Bride, forever united in a heavenly, holy and mystical marriage that we enter into every time we celebrate Mass.

Classes will be Sunday evenings @ 5:15pm and Wednesday morning @ 9:15am in the parish hall conference room. Cost for materials are $25. Scholarships are available. Email Tracy@stmarysrcia@yahoo.com.

If you have not already offered your pledge in this year's Diocesan Services Fund (DSF), please do so today. DSF 2017 is focused on us, the Church, as we Go Make Disciples with your gifts, which will benefit ministries that serve thousands and thousands of our brothers and sisters in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Through your generous support of DSF, we bring Christ's comfort and care to the many pressing needs that cannot be addressed individually or by one parish alone. Our Parish goal for 2017 is $52,000. With every parish family's full participation, we will surely exceed this amount and do our share to help so many in need, advancing the work of the Church community. To give online, please visit www.archgh.org/dsf. For those of you who have already responded with a gift, please accept our sincere gratitude.

All Are welcome!

Dear parish family,

CORPUS CHRISTI

Vatican II calls the Eucharist "the font and summit of Christian life". Surely we can't cover in few lines the depth in meaning of the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ which the Church celebrates this Sunday. So let me just highlight 3 points.

1) Unity and sacrificial love: The Eucharist teaches us the importance of community, the bond that results from this sacrifice. Just as numerous grains of wheat are pounded together to make the host, and many grapes are crushed together to make the wine, so we become unified in this sacrifice. Our Lord chose these elements in order to show us that we ought to seek union with one another, to allow the Holy Spirit to transform us into Our Lord Jesus Christ and to work with Him in the process. Christ is the Head and we are the Body. Together we are one. That which unites us is our willingness to sacrifice our time and talents to God in our fellow members in Christ's Mystical Body. This is symbolized by our sharing in the same Bread and the same Cup. Hence, Holy Communion should strengthen our sense of unity and love.

2) We need to prepare properly to receive Holy Communion: We have tarnished God's image within us through acts of impurity, disobedience and the like. Let us therefore receive Holy Communion with fervent love and respect -- not merely as a matter of routine. We need to be reminded that our outward piety towards the consecrated Bread and Wine cannot coexist with rudeness, unkindness, slander, cruelty, gossiping or any other breach of charity toward our brothers and sisters.

3) We need to become Christ-bearers and conveyers: We are what we eat. By receiving Holy Communion we become Christ-bearers as Mary was, with the duty of conveying Christ to others at home and in the workplace, as love, mercy, forgiveness and humble and sacrificial service.

As we therefore celebrate this great feast of faith, let us worship what St. Thomas Aquinas did not hesitate to call, "the greatest miracle that Christ ever worked on earth My Body My Blood". Before the greatness of this mystery, let us also repeat St. Thomas Aquinas' prayer of devotion in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament: "O Sacrament most holy! O Sacrament Divine! All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine!"

On a different note, please keep me in your prayers as I'll undergo a heart bypass surgery this Thursday, June 22. Other priests will be covering me until I'll fully recuperate.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

Blessings to all and have a good week.

Fr. Tony Castro

Querida familia parroquial,

CORPUS CHRISTI

El Vaticano II llama a la Eucaristía "la fuente y la cumbre de la vida cristiana". Seguramente no podemos cubrir en pocas líneas la profundidad en el significado de la Solemnidad del Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo que la Iglesia celebra este domingo. Así que permítanme simplemente destacar 3 puntos.

1) Unidad y amor de sacrificio: La Eucaristía nos enseña la importancia de la comunidad, el vínculo que resulta de este sacrificio. Así como numerosos granos de trigo se trituran para hacer la hostia, y muchas uvas se exprimen para hacer el vino, así nos unificarnos en este sacrificio. Nuestro Señor escogió estos elementos y así mostrarnos que debemos buscar la unión unos con otros, para permitir que el Espíritu Santo nos transforme en Nuestro Señor Jesucristo y poder trabajar con Él en el proceso. Cristo es la Cabeza y nosotros somos el Cuerpo. Juntos somos uno. Lo que nos une es la disposición a sacrificar nuestro tiempo y talentos hacia Dios a favor de nuestros compañeros en el Cuerpo Místico de Cristo. Esto es simbolizado por nuestro compartir en el mismo Pan y la misma Copa. Por lo tanto, la Santa Comunión debe fortalecer nuestro sentido de unidad y amor.

2) Necesitamos prepararnos adecuadamente para recibir la Sagrada Comunión: Hemos empañado la imagen de Dios dentro de nosotros a través de actos de impureza, desobediencia y cosas por el estilo. Por lo tanto, recibamos la Sagrada Comunión con ferviente amor y respeto - no sólo como una cuestión de rutina. Debemos recordar que nuestra piedad exterior hacia el pan y el vino consagrados no puede coexistir con la rudeza, la crueldad, la calumnia, la deshonestidad, el chisme o cualquier otra falta de caridad hacia nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

3) Necesitamos ser receptores y portadores de Cristo: Somos lo que comemos. Al recibir la Santa Comunión nos convertimos en portadores de Cristo como lo fue María, con el deber de transmitir a Cristo a los demás en el hogar y en el lugar de trabajo, con amor, misericordia, perdón, servicio humilde y sacrificado.

Por lo tanto, al celebrar esta gran fiesta de fe, adoremos lo que Santo Tomás de Aquino no vaciló en llamar "el milagro más grande que Cristo haya dejado en la tierra ... Mi Cuerpo ... " Mi sangre". Ante la grandeza de este misterio, repitamos también la oración de devoción de Santo Tomás de Aquino en presencia del Santísimo Sacramento: "¡Oh Sacramento Santo, oh Sacramento Divino!, ¡toda la honra, toda la gloria y toda la acción de gracias sean tuyos!"

Cambiando de tema, por favor les pido que me mantengan en sus oraciones ya que me someteré a una cirugía de bypass este jueves 22 de junio. Otros sacerdotes me cubrirán hasta que me recuperen completamente.

¡FELIZ DÍA DEL PADRE!

Bendiciones a todos y que tengan una buena semana.

Fr. Tony Castro

Funeral Coordinator Needed

Are you retired and looking of some way to be of service to your parish community here at St. Mary's? When someone passes away, there is a need to have an individual willing to meet with the family and go over the details and readings for the funeral service. On the day of the funeral you would also be responsible to setup the church for the funeral mass and attend the mass in order to be of assistance to the funeral director and family members.

If this might be a ministry you may be interested in, please contact the office as soon as possible. This ministry has only been possible by the willingness of the many who have served before. We are in desperate need of help in order to be able to meet the needs of parish families at the time of their loss.

Funeral Telephone Tree

Often when someone passes away during the week it is very difficult to get the word out to fellow parishioners about funeral arrangements. If you would like to be contacted through our Telephone Tree, please contact the office with your contact information.

Reception Volunteers Needed...

Would you be interested in donating food for our funeral receptions? We have three funeral teams that do the receptions on a rotating basis. You do not have to attend the reception, but can drop off your donations anytime before the service. Also, we are in need of volunteers to help with the receptions following funerals. This ministry is a true blessing to our parish. If you would like to donate food or join one of our teams, please contact the office. Every volunteer does make a difference!!!
