Adults Come Learn With Us... Bible Study Sun. Evening & Wed. Morning Revelation: The King Yet to Come

An intriguing study that shows how the Kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the Kingdom of heaven. Here you will discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean. You will see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the “end time.” It is a Revelation of God as our Divine Bridegroom and the Church as his spotless Bride, forever untied in a heavenly, holy and mystical marriage that we enter into every time we celebrate Mass.

Classes will be Sunday evenings @ 5:15pm and Wednesday morning @ 9:15am in the parish hall conference room. Cost for materials are $25. Scholarships are available. Email Tracy; stmarysrcia@yahoo.com.

Justice & Peace School Supply Drive...

It is time, once again, to help those in need of school supplies in our community. The estimated cost to fill one backpack for a 4th grader with the basic supplies is between $50-$70. Many in our community do not have the funds available to purchase the necessary supplies each year. If you or someone you know is in need of supplies, please contact the church office.

Please bring your donations by the office during regular office hours or place them in the collection boxes at the entrance doors of the Church over the next few weekends. If you are not sure what supplies to purchase, several area stores post the supplies needed for each grade level in their stores. We are always in need of supplies for our high school students.

GOD'S MERCY, POWER, AND LOVE

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency?

Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

For centuries, the only Eucharistic Prayer we heard as Western Catholics was the old Roman Canon, usually recited in a low voice by the priest, in Latin. By the 1940s, many Catholics were learning to follow along with the actions of the priest by means of a bilingual missal, with Latin on one side and English on the other. Drawings of the priest's position at the altar, moving from one side to the other, or bowing or standing with uplifted hands at the center, helped the readers stay on track.

The Roman Canon is a long prayer, and since it was done every day for every occasion, priests had a way of galloping through it. Even though long, its structure is fairly simple, with the consecration and sacrifice clearly marked out. Sadly, this surviving prayer had triumphed over many treasures of our tradition that emphasized other dimensions of Eucharist. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy in 1963 did not call directly for new Eucharistic Prayers, but that direction was inevitable. Discussion began almost immediately, and by 1967 the Vatican approved three new Eucharistic Prayers. In 1974, the Congregation for Worship unveiled the experiment of two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation, and three for Masses with Children. At last, a period of creativity and enrichment had begun.
