Dear parish family,

4 Advent/Christmas Eve

The world tends always to associate greatness with wealth, power and fame. But the birth of our Lord and Savior in the most humble setting tells us something greater than all our human aspirations and give us a concrete idea how the grace of God operate in our lives.

God's message for all of us this last Sunday of Advent is focused on Mary. She is the very message of God. Her life and her attitude before Him made her a perfect model for our response to God himself. She is the highly favored daughter of God not only because she was chosen but that she was perfectly open to will and the purposes of God.

All of us come to church because we already acknowledge God in our lives. Yet what differentiate us one from another is how we are before God and how open are we to His will. We can also be a "favored" son or daughter of God, like Mary, if we allow him to use us for his purposes. All of us come to pray to God to ask his help in many aspects of our life or for our many different needs. But how many of us pray that we become his servants at his disposal? This is why Mary is the message of God to us. She allowed herself to be the lowly handmaid of the Lord.

Sometimes we are so close minded to our needs and problems that we are not so open to the possibilities of God's grace and so we fail at times to recognize the will of God. We are oftentimes so focused on our needs and wants rather than to understand and follow what God wants of us. In the process we shut out the Holy Spirit to work in us. The Holy Spirit is the gift of God's presence in us. But we cannot receive this gift unless we are totally open to it.

Mary is blessed because of her total openness to the plan of God and because of her complete trust and confidence in Him. We are also blessed if like Mary we willingly yield to the message of God rather than be carried away by the false messages of the world. The simplicity and pure confidence of Mary to God free her from the confusion of her world. It is also this same simplicity and confidence in God that can free us from the complexity and confusion in the world we live today.

This is the shortest Sunday of Advent in years, in fact just a day. And tomorrow its already Christmas! The story of the Annunciation is the very reason why Incarnation took place, the reason of the celebration of birth of the Savior. Mary's response to the angel ought to be also our response today and everyday of our life as Christmas is here. Let her "yes" be our "yes" to God's message - that Jesus be born again in our hearts. Only then can God will bring to fulfillment his wonderful plan for each and every one of us.

May you have a blessed Christmas!

Fr. Tony

Querida familia parroquial,

4 Adviento / Nochebuena

El mundo siempre tiende a asociar la grandeza con la riqueza, el poder y la fama. Pero el nacimiento de nuestro Señor y Salvador en el ambiente más humilde nos dice algo más grande que todas nuestras aspiraciones humanas y nos da una idea concreta de cómo la gracia de Dios opera en nuestras vidas.

El mensaje de Dios para todos nosotros este último domingo de Adviento se centra en María. Ella es el mismísimo mensaje de Dios. Su vida y su actitud ante Él la convirtieron en un modelo perfecto para nuestra respuesta al mismo Dios. Ella es la hija favorecida de Dios, no solo porque fue elegida, sino porque estaba perfectamente obediente a la voluntad y los propósitos de Dios.

Todos nosotros venimos a la iglesia porque ya reconocemos a Dios en nuestras vidas. Sin embargo, lo que nos diferencia uno de otro es cómo somos ante Dios y cuán dispuestos estamos a aceptar su voluntad. También podemos ser un hijo o hija de Dios "favorecido", como María, si le permitimos que nos use para sus propósitos. Todos nosotros venimos a orar a Dios para pedir su ayuda en muchos aspectos de nuestra vida o para nuestras diferentes necesidades. Pero, ¿cuántos de nosotros oramos para convertirnos en sus siervos a su disposición? Es por eso que María es el mensaje de Dios para nosotros. Ella se permitió ser la humilde sierva del Señor.

A veces estamos tan concentrados en nuestras necesidades y problemas que no estamos desbloqueados a las posibilidades de la gracia de Dios y por eso a veces fallamos en reconocer la voluntad de Dios. Muchas veces nos enfocamos en nuestras necesidades y deseos en lugar de entender y seguir lo que Dios quiere de nosotros. En el proceso, excluimos al Espíritu Santo para que trabaje en nosotros. El Espíritu Santo es el regalo de la presencia de Dios en nosotros. Pero no podemos recibir este regalo a menos que estemos totalmente abiertos a él.

María es bendecida por su total apertura al plan de Dios y por su total confianza y confianza en él. También somos bendecidos si, como María, cedemos voluntariamente al mensaje de Dios en lugar de dejarnos llevar por los mensajes falsos del mundo. La simplicidad y la confianza pura de María hacia Dios la liberan de la confusión de su mundo. También es esta misma simplicidad y confianza en Dios lo que nos puede liberar de la complejidad y la confusión en el mundo que vivimos hoy.

Este es el domingo de Adviento más corto en años, de hecho solo un día. ¡Y mañana ya es Navidad! La historia de la Anunciación es la razón por la cual tuvo lugar la Encarnación, el motivo de la celebración del nacimiento del Salvador. La respuesta de María al ángel debería ser también nuestra respuesta hoy y todos los días de nuestra vida, ya que la Navidad está aquí. Deje que su "sí" sea nuestro "sí" al mensaje de Dios: que Jesús nazca de nuevo en nuestros corazones.

Solo entonces Dios podrá llevar a cabo su maravilloso plan para todos y cada uno de nosotros.
¡Que tengan una bendita Navidad!

P. Tony

Christmas Eve falls on Sunday this year, and in order to be ready for the 6pm Children's Mass we will be decorating the church after the Spanish Mass.

All are welcome to help...

Are you 70- ½ or over? Do you have an IRA that requires a yearly RMD (Required Minimum Distribution)? Do you want to save tax dollars and donate to a charity at the same time?

Consider a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) that is paid directly from the IRA to a qualified charity, such as St. Mary's. The Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2016 finally made permanent qualified charitable distributions (QCDs) from individual retirement accounts. An IRA owner can exclude from gross income up to $100,000 of a QCD made for a year, and a QCD can be used to satisfy any IRA required minimum distributions (RMDs) for the year. Under IRS rules, the money must be sent directly to the charity. You can not withdraw the money and then send it to the charity.

Example of savings: If you give $100/week to the church or to any charity qualifying as an IRC 501(c)(3) you are donating $5,200/year. If you donate with after tax dollars, you may have paid as much as 20% to the IRS first, or $1,040 in taxes. However, if you rollover this amount directly to the charity, you do not pay taxes on this amount. This benefits both you, as well as the charitable entity. Talk with your tax planner or financial advisor about this exciting opportunity to save tax dollars!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Children of the parish are somewhat focused on Santa Claus these days, who is keeping an eye on who's naughty and who's nice. Santa Claus, with his heavenly patron Saint Nicholas, has been more or less in charge of gift-giving to American children for a hundred years or so. In other places, perhaps more attentive to our Christian tradition, there are different gift-bearers. In Greece, Saint Basil delivers the presents on his feast day, December 31, and makes sure everyone is sprinkled with holy water. The Baby Jesus is in charge elsewhere, called the Christkind in Austria and Belgium, El Niño Jesús in Columbia, and Le Petit Jesus in France, where he shares his duties with Père Noël. In the Czech Republic almost everyone is atheist, but Ježíšek, the infant Jesus, brings gifts to one and all. In Poland the "Star Man" is said to bring the gifts, although often he turns out to be the village priest in disguise. Saint Nicholas, not his Americanized cousin, is the giver in Holland, where he wears a bishop's miter, and in Russia, where he wears a bishop's crown. Soviet Russia tried to dethrone Saint Nicholas and promote Grandfather Frost, but no one was much fooled by this attempt to squeeze religion out of Christ's birth. One country has a saintly woman in charge of the gifts, Saint Lucy, honored in Sweden on December 13, when children serve their parents breakfast in bed, and others awake to news that they have been nominated for a Nobel Prize. Some children have a second round of gifts on Epiphany, when the magi assume the gift-giving duties. In general, the gifts of Christmas are simple pleasures, not great heaps of treasures. Once upon a time, a new pair of socks or an orange was enough for us. No matter what gifts we receive, all of them are to point us to the true gift, and the true giver. Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
