Sacrament of Baptism

Baptisms are celebrated on the 1st Sunday of the month. Classes are held on the 2nd & 3rd Tuesday of each month. Please come by the Parish Office to register or call for more information.

Reconciliation

The Sacrament of Penance is offered on Saturdays, from 4:30p.m. to 5:30p.m. or by appointment.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the Parish Office at least (6) six months prior to your desired wedding date to arrange a meeting with Father Tony or one of the Deacons. If you want a Mass, you must call Father Tony.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Are you a non-Catholic who is interested in joining the Catholic faith? Are you a baptized Catholic who has never received the sacraments of 1st Communion and Confirmation? If your answer is yes to either of these questions, call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of First Communion

First Communion candidates must be baptized, at least in the second grade, and have been attending CCE classes for two full years previous to their receiving the Sacrament. Adults needing First Communion should refer to the rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

Sacrament of Confirmation

Confirmation candidates must have previously received the Sacraments of Baptism and First Communion. They must have faithfully attended Life Teen for at least one full year prior to beginning preparation for the Sacrament (more than three absences without a valid excuse can alter the process). A signed form stating that the parent/guardian and the candidate understand all requirements is also necessary before the preparation begins. Adults needing confirmation should refer to the Rite of Christian initiation of adults.

“Go Make Disciples”

If you have not already offered your pledge in this year's Diocesan Services Fund (DSF), please do so today. DSF 2017 is focused on us, the Church, as we Go Make Disciples with your gifts, which will benefit ministries that serve thousands and thousands of our brothers and sisters in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Through your generous support of DSF, we bring Christ's comfort and care to the many pressing needs that cannot be addressed individually or by one parish alone. Our Parish goal for 2017 is $52,000. With every parish family's full participation, we will surely exceed this amount and do our share to help so many in need, advancing the work of the Church community. To give online, please visit www.archgh.org/dsf. For those of you who have already responded with a gift, please accept our sincere gratitude.

To Give online go to www.archgh.org/dsf.

Dear parish family,

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

We know for sure that there are myriad of things in the whole universe that exist but still a mystery to us. Indeed so many things in life that we never could have known unless they are revealed to us. How much more about our faith? Nonetheless the mysteries of our faith aren't of our making. God himself reveals them to us through the Bible and finally through Jesus Christ, the fullness of Divine Revelation.

The mystery of the Holy Trinity is admittedly above our reason yet it is not something that goes against reason or is a contradiction of reason. And although the Trinity can be illustrated in rational deductions, it is still mystery. By mystery the Church does not mean a riddle, but rather a reality above our human comprehension that we may begin to grasp, but ultimately must know through worship, symbol, and faith. It has been said that mystery is not a wall to run up against, but an ocean in which to swim.

Therefore what is more important for us in this Sunday's solemnity of the Trinity is to bring home with us the message of Scriptures in today's readings. Our gospel reading is a succinct summary of God's initiative in our behalf. This is surely the central passage of the whole Scriptures, and undeniably our favorite passage. I guess most of us have memorized this by heart. It says, "God so loved the world that He gave his only son that whoever believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life (Jn 3:16)."

This single verse is ripe with meanings. One charming and simple commentary breaks this one verse into the following: It tells us of "God," the greatest lover. He "so loved" telling us of the greatest decree that if the whole Bible can be summed into one word it is this decree called "love." And if the world is wanting of anything it is this wanting of that "love." What follows is the verse "the world" which tells us of the greatest company. God does not love only the good but also the sinners, in fact not only the good and bad, rather the whole world. Then it tells us, "that he gave" reminding us the greatest act. Next words are "His only begotten Son" telling us about the greatest gift. Then one word "whoever" follows it, telling us of the greatest opportunity. Then the next word is "believe" telling us of the greatest command. And then, "in him" tells us of the greatest attraction who is Jesus himself. "Should not perish" the greatest promise. The word "but" tells us of the greatest difference leading to the final words - "eternal life" which is the greatest possession.

May the Blessed Trinity bless and direct us and have a good week! Fr. Tony

Querida familia parroquial,

Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad

Sabemos con certeza que hay una gran cantidad de cosas que existen en todo el universo, que aún son un misterio para nosotros. De hecho tantas cosas en la vida que nunca podríamos haber conocido a menos que se nos hayan sido reveladas. ¿Cuánto más acerca de nuestra fe? Sin embargo, los misterios de nuestra fe no son de nuestra creación. Dios mismo nos las revela a través de la Biblia y finalmente a través de Jesucristo, la plenitud de la Revelación Divina.

El misterio de la Santísima Trinidad es ciertamente superior a nuestra razón, pero no es algo que va en contra o una contradicción misma de la razón. Y aunque la Trinidad puede ser ilustrada en deducciones racionales, sigue siendo misterio. Pues misterio no significa a la iglesia un acertijo, sino más bien una realidad por encima de nuestra comprensión humana que podemos comenzar a entender, la cual debemos conocerla a través de la adoración, interpretación y la fe misma. Se ha dicho que el misterio no es una pared contra la que hay que enfrentarse, sino un océano en el cual hay que nadar.

Por lo tanto, lo que es más importante para nosotros en la solemnidad de este domingo de la Trinidad es llevar a casa con nosotros el mensaje de las Escrituras en las lecturas de hoy. Nuestra lectura del Evangelio es un resumen conciso del enfoque de Dios a nuestro favor. Con gran certeza el pasaje central de todas las Escrituras, y sin duda alguna nuestro pasaje favorito. Supongo que la mayoría de nosotros lo hemos memorizado de memoria. Dice: "De tal manera amó Dios al mundo, que dio a su único hijo, para que todo aquel que en él cree, no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna" (Jn 3, 16).

Este solo verso está lleno de significados. Un comentario encantador y simple rompe este verso en lo siguiente: Nos habla de "Dios", el gran amor. Él "amó tanto" ofreciéndonos el decreto más grande que si toda la Biblia puede ser resumida en una sola palabra, es este decreto llamado "amor". Y si el mundo está falto de algo es este anhelado "amor". Continúa el verso "el mundo" nos dice de la comunidad más grande. Dios no ama solamente a los buenos, sino también a los pecadores, no sólo a los buenos y malos, sino a todo el mundo. Entonces nos dice, "que nos dio" recordándonos el acto más sublime. Las siguientes palabras son "Su Hijo unigénito" el regalo maravilloso. Luego una palabra "quienquiera" que lo siga, dándonos la gran oportunidad. Continuando, la siguiente palabra es "creer" que instruye con el mayor mandato. Y entonces, "en él" nos habla de la mayor atracción que es Jesús mismo. "No debe perecer" la promesa más grande. La palabra "pero" nos dice de la mayor diferencia que lleva a las palabras finales - "vida eterna", que es la máxima posesión.

¡Que la Santísima Trinidad nos bendiga y nos dirija y que tengan una buena semana! Fr. Tony

Samaritan's Corner Please Pray About This... Funeral Coordinator Needed

Are you retired and looking of some way to be of service to your parish community here at St. Mary's? When someone passes away, there is a need to have an individual willing to meet with the family and go over the details and readings for the funeral service. On the day of the funeral you would also be responsible to setup the church for the funeral mass and attend the mass in order to be of assistance to the funeral director and family members.

If this might be a ministry you may be interested in, please contact the office as soon as possible. This ministry has only been possible by the willingness of the many who have served before. We are in desperate need of help in order to be able to meet the needs of parish families at the time of their loss.

Welcome God's Children
